

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[For Additional Local Items see Fifth Page.]

A WOULD-BE MORMON.—A rather rich case came up before Alderman Lutz yesterday afternoon. Joseph Daryne was charged by his wife (or rather, one of his wives) named Johanna with bigamy. The accused admitted the charge, and was committed in default of $1000 to answer at a certain few points in a brief narrative of the eventful life of the defendant are rather interesting. About fifteen years since he entered into the matrimonial bond with a young woman residing then in Western New York. She had four children, one of them a boy of about fourteen years of age, who was present at the hearing. Five or six years ago, the complaining wife says, the defendant started from home, alleging that he had some business that would require his presence for three weeks. He did not return, and she was left in suspense. Not hearing anything from him, she finally came to the conclusion that he must have departed this life. It appears, however, that he came to Philadelphia, and worked in the Navy Yard for several years, and boarded a room on the time at the public house of Mr. Peter Bouvier, in that section of the city.

In June, 1864, he was married by the Rev. Mr. Clay to a young girl residing in Penn's Neck. This marriage ceremony was performed in the city of Philadelphia. Since that eventful period he has been living with his second wife at Penn's Neck, occasionally visiting Philadelphia, and residing temporarily at the public house above-mentioned, some months ago, it is known, the first wife heard of his being in this city. About a week ago she arrived here, and after considerable trouble, vexation, and disappointment, got on his track. She heard that he had been living somewhere near the Navy Yard. She searched the entire vicinity, and finally stopped at his old boarding-house, where she kindly gave her shelter, and arrangements were made for her to remain with her husband. Officer William Sheer, of the police force, knew the individual. He proceeded to Penn's Neck, and left word there for Daryne to come to Philadelphia and settle a board bill.

Yesterday afternoon, he arrived and entering the house of Mrs. Bouvier, desired to see his bill for board.

"Certainly, sir," replied Mrs. Bouvier, who is a shrewd business woman. Upon going to an adjoining room, she returned in a moment bringing with her the woman who claimed him as her husband.

"Here is your bill, sir," said Mrs. Bouvier, introducing the wife. It was an interesting tableau, rendered doubly so by the appearance of an officer with a warrant for his arrest. The prisoner was dumb.

The parties at once proceeded to the office of the magistrate, and the hearing progressed. The wife told her story. The Alderman asked the defendant how long he had been married to the second wife.

"Defendant replied:—'Since June 21, 1864.'"

"Why did you do so?" inquired the Alderman.

"Because she is younger than my other wife."

"That will do, sir," responded the magistrate. "You are required to enter bail in the sum of $1000, to take your trial at court. The defendant was committed."

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE IN SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—At a large meeting held in Horticultural Hall on Monday, Mr. J. Hulme received independent nomination as one of the conservatives of the Second Congressional District. After the passage of a number of resolutions, a committee was appointed to wait on Mr. Hulme, to inform him of the proceedings of the evening. The following is Mr. Hulme's reply:—

LA PIERRE HOUSE, September 11, 1866. Dr. Wilson, C. Swann, Charles Cambles, Samuel W. Ayers, S. Henry Norris, L. P. Ashmead, Richard Williams, B. Sprague, C. M. Smith, Harvey B. Goddard, J. E. Bazley, and others. Gentlemen:—Without solicitation on my part, it appears that at a meeting of conservative citizens, irrespective of party, held on the 29th of August last, you were selected as an independent candidate for Congress, to represent the Second District. It also appears that at a Democratic Convention, held on the 4th of September, no Democratic candidate was selected, the Convention endorsing my nomination by the conservatives.
